

REPCo S.r.l.

POLITICA PER LA QUALITA' L'AMBIENTE E LA SICUREZZA

POLICIES FOR QUALITY, ENVIRONMENT AND SAFETY

The REPCo S.r.l. General Management intends to offer its customers quality products in accordance with the specifications, at a competitive cost. While carrying out its activity, the company operates in such a way as to limit environmental impacts, reduce safety risks in the workplace and respecting ethical codes.

Client satisfaction is considered a strategical factor.

Moreover the satisfaction of all the involved parties is taken into great consideration.

To that end, REPCo S.r.l. identifies the following general goals:

- quality of product and service to the Client
- prevention of environmental pollution
- gradual decrease of environmental impact
- risk prevention in the workplace
- competitive prices
- continuous research for innovative solutions
- respect of mandatory regulations and laws and of the company ethical code.

As a consequence, the activities of all corporate offices should have the following aims:

- controlling all the internal processes
- improving and motivating human resources
- improving performance continuously
- establishing mutually beneficial relations with suppliers
- identifying suppliers with the most significant environmental impact, and controlling their environmental respect periodically
- safeguarding the personnel health/safety by means of the arrangement of a safe workplace ergonomically equipped, and periodical health controls
- protecting and respecting the environment, identifying and managing the considerable environmental impacts

In order to coordinate the implementation of the foregoing, the Company Management has activated and committed itself to maintain an Environment Safety Quality Integrated System outlined in this Manual, keeping as a reference and integrating the suggested model by standards UNI EN ISO 9001 UNI EN ISO 14001 and OHSAS 18001.

This policy is circulated to the company personnel by means of posting and availability on company web site.

All personnel is kindly invited to act following the above mentioned principles and rules.